

Writing skills practice: A report on a school trip abroad – writing practice

Think of a school trip that you have been on. Choose three aspects of the trip and consider their positive points, negative points and what changes you would recommend. Then write your report. Make sure you give the purpose of the report in the introduction and conclude by saying how successful you think the trip was overall.
