

Video zone: The two euro T-shirt – exercises

Do the preparation task first. Then watch the video and do the exercise. Remember you can read the transcript at any time.

Would you buy a T-shirt from a vending machine? Do you ever wonder why clothes are sometimes very cheap? Watch this video and see what happens when people are offered the chance to buy a T-shirt for two euros.

Preparation: ordering

What are the most important things to consider when you buy a new T-shirt? Write a number (1–6) to put these sentences in order, from the most important to the least important. There is no correct answer for this activity.

- ..... It's cheap and I have enough money to buy it.
- ..... I know where it was made.
- ..... I like the style and colours.
- ..... It's a fashionable brand of T-shirt.
- ..... It's good quality and will last for a long time.

1. Check your understanding: ordering

Write a number (1–8) to put these events from the video in the correct order.

- ..... They are introduced to Manisha, who made the T-shirt.
- ..... The customer puts two euros into the vending machine.
- ..... The customer at the vending machine is offered the chance to buy a T-shirt for 2 euros.
- ..... All the customers we see decide to donate the money to charity.
- ..... They watch a video about Manisha's working conditions.
- ..... They are asked if they still want to buy the 2 euro T-shirt or if they would prefer to donate the money to the fashion revolution charity.
- ..... They select a size: small, medium, large or extra large.
- ..... They realise that Manisha is paid very little for making T-shirts and that she works extremely long hours in bad conditions.